

INFORMATION LEAFLET

(The information in this leaflet is a brief overview of the tentative admission procedure and general rules. The final version will be available on the CCB website www.ccb.nic.in from June 15, 2009)

I. INTRODUCTION

The Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), Govt. of India, has constituted the Central Counselling Board (CCB) for AIEEE-2009. The Head Quarters of the CCB has been established at the National Institute of Technology, Warangal (NITW). Admission will be done for the eligible candidates of AIEEE-2009 with co-operation from NIC, CBSE, and Participating Institutes (PIs). The counselling software had been developed jointly by NIC and CCB, and has been maintained by NIC.

Admissions will be ONLINE. In this, the candidates will fill their options on-line using Internet from any place of their convenience. They will have the option to change their choices till they lock it during the specified duration as per Table - 1.

Arrangements are made at designated Admission centres for guidance. Candidates may seek guidance and do their registration and choice filling at these admission centres. The list of identified admission centres is given in Table - 2.

Once the choices are filled and locked on or before deadline, these choices cannot be changed. Further, this list of choices will be used throughout the admission procedure and under no circumstances the choices can be changed.

All the seats available in PIs (Table -3) offered through CCB will be allotted during the first round of seat allotment. If some of the candidates do not take admission against such allotment their seats fall vacant. These vacant seats are allotted through second round of seat allotment. Candidates who took admission against the first round of seat allotment and wish to be considered for the vacant seats in the next rounds for getting higher preferred choices will be required to give their willingness at the time of reporting at the Admission centers.

New Features

- The candidates can fill up their choices online using internet from anywhere.
- After the First Round of seat allotment, Second Round of seat allotment and subsequent rounds of seats allotment will be made for the vacant seats. Only those registered candidates who had neither been allotted seats nor withdrawn and gave the willingness for the next round will be considered for the Subsequent Rounds.
- The candidate who got provisional seat allotment shall report to any admission centre for remote reporting.

In case of any dispute arising out of counselling, the decision of CCB shall be final. The Legal jurisdiction will be limited to Hyderabad courts only (Lower, District & High Court) and will not be subject to jurisdiction of any other courts outside Hyderabad.

II. ADMISSION PROCEDURE

On-Line Registration and Choice filling (June 20 — 28, 2009)

The eligible candidates will exercise their choices from anywhere over the Internet. They can change their choices till the specified date and time.

The following are the steps to be followed by the candidate for online choice filling and locking:

- For Online choice filling a candidate has to log on to the website www.ccb.nic.in.
- Register as a new candidate by using the details given on the admit card.
- The candidate has to verify his/her credentials such as category, subcategory, gender, state of eligibility and address for communication etc. and will be allowed only once to change.
- The candidates will fill their choices of seats on-line to indicate the choices of institutions with branches in order of their preference. There will be indicative allotment (Mock Counselling) to make the candidates aware of the possibility of getting a seat for his / her rank.
- The candidates are permitted, if they so desire, to change or re-order their choices, delete earlier choices and add new choices any number of times until they lock their choices on or before the last date for locking.
- Finally, candidates have to lock their choices on or before June 28, 2009 by 11.55PM and a print-out of this locked choice is to be preserved with the candidate for further reference. After this, the candidates can not change their options under any circumstances. After locking the choices, if a candidate again logs in, then the choices given by the candidate will be displayed.

- If the candidate fails to lock his / her choices before the due date, he/she forfeits his right to claim admission and will not be considered for seat allotment.

Seat Allotment and Reporting

The choices submitted by the candidate will be processed centrally and the first round of provisional allotment of seats will be displayed on the internet on 30th June 2009. If the candidate fails to satisfy the qualifications prescribed, the provisional allotment of seat automatically stands cancelled

For admission, the allottees are to report to any Admission Center during the period given in Table -1, falling which their allotment will be cancelled. The seats thus falling vacant in first round will be considered for allotment in the subsequent rounds of allotment.

- Documents like Admit card, Score card, 10th class or equivalent certificate, 10 + 2 or equivalent certificate, category and subcategory certificates will be verified. Transfer certificate, two sets of xerox copies of the certificates and four passport size photographs should be submitted.
- An initial fee deposit of Rs. 25,000/- will be collected at the fee counters for admission. The deposit is to be made through a demand draft in favour of "Chairman, C C B - 2009", payable at Warangal.
- In order to be considered for the vacant seats, candidates must submit willingness to include their options given already for getting higher preferred choices.
- The candidates have to collect the fee receipt cum admission letter to submit at the allotted institute.

Seats will be allotted against reserved categories as per Government of India norms.
